LOCAL BRIEFS.

The pulpit of the Person Street Methodist Church will be filled to-day by the Rev. Mr. Hendren.

Congress has passed an act authorizing Commissioners to sell the Custom House property of Plymouth.

R. T. Fulghum, the Secretary of the North Carolina Agricultural Society is in the city.

The young folks had a most delightful party at the residence of Mr. J. C. S. Lunsden Friday night. We sincerely regret that other duties prevented our attendance.

The time allowed the contractor for the erection of the fence around the new State Fair Grounds will be 60 days instead of 40 as, heretofore announced. See notice.

The friends and patrons of Miller & Nelson, front basement of Metropolitan Hall, are informed that they are now receiving a full and complete stock of Wines and Liquors. Especial attention is directed to their Bar Whisky, a superior article, and also their old Nash Brandy, bought by one of the firm in Nash county.

Too much of a good thing—the biggest local of the season, any quantity of it, and yet we know not where to commence or when to end it. We refer to the negro speaking, that attracted the crowd, that frightened the dogs, that ran away, that scared a man that swore and cursed, that the police arrested, that was tried before the Mayor, that was put in the "lock up"—and here our local ends.

ATTACK ON AN EDITOR.—We have received an account of an attack on Mr. Nason, editor of the Newbern Republic and Courier. If the facts in the case be correctly stated, we must say the assault was unjustifiable in every way.

CATHOLIC CHURCH.—The Baptism of a well known gentleman of this city, will take place this morning during divine service, which commences at 11 o'clock. This and other interesting ceremonies will give an unusual significance to the devotion of this morning.

PEACE REIGNS IN WARSAW.—For the first time in its history, the county jail of Johnston county is now without a tenant. This is an evidence of the improved state of morals in this good old county, a fact we are more than pleased to record. May this reformation continue, and we know it will.

THE VUE DE L'EAU GIFT CONCERT.—The managers of this enterprise, heretofore advertised by us, announce elsewhere, this morning, that the concert will positively come off on the 20th of February. The names of the gentlemen at the head of the affair is a sufficient guarantee of its worth. Mr. R. H. Bradley, of this city, has been made agent for the sale of the tickets. Call and see him.

SUPREME COURT.—All the Justices present yesterday.

James R. Wooley vs. Henry T. Jordan, et al., from Person, argued. Wm. A. Graham for plaintiff, Batchelor, Edwards & Batchelor and Bailey for defendants.

Abram Morton vs. W. Z. Richardson, et al., from Rockingham, argued. Scales & Scales for plaintiff, Dillard & Gilmer and Smith for defendants.

Elizabeth Clapp vs. W. D. Reynolds, adm., from Guilford, argued. Ralph Gorrell for plaintiff, Dillard & Gilmer and Smith for defendants.

All other cases from the 7th District, not heretofore argued, have been placed at end of docket, and will be heard commencing on the 17th of February.

THE DAILY NEWS.

VOL. 1.

RALEIGH, N. C. SUNDAY MORNING, JANUARY 26, 1873.

NO. 250.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.—Among the prominent gentlemen in our city yesterday, we noticed P. A. Duffy, Esq., Editor of the Greensboro "Patriot," Major Sparrow, Major J. W. Graham, J. S. Ball, Editor of the "New North State."

Robert M. Furman, Esq., Editor of the Asheville "Citizen," is on a visit to his old home in Lexington. Reckon Bob, left a cousin behind him.

Edward Parker, Esq., prominent lawyer of Alamance county, has been in the city this week attending the session of the Supreme Court.

NARROW ESCAPE.—On Thursday night last about 7 1/2 o'clock, being one of the darkest of the season, while proceeding down Hargett street, to my residence, I was arrested by one of those strange instincts that warn you of the proximity of immediate danger in the dark and, stepping aside, just escaped the end of a huge piece of timber carried on the shoulder of an athletic negro, who was as unaware of my presence as I was of his, the darkness being so dense as to render it impossible to see any object within the distance of a foot, and but for the intervention of this happy provision of nature wrong, or perhaps fatal accident, would have occurred. Who would have been responsible? The city authorities, who, in spite of the known wishes of the citizens, continue to shroud the beautiful Capital in darkness, and turn a deaf ear to all remonstrances. How dare they ignore the known will of the people! Are they aware that they are the servants of the public, instead of their masters. The next election for Commissioners, it is to be hoped, will remedy the evil, if nothing else can.

A TAX PAYER.

HENDERSON ITEMS.—Our correspondent, under date of yesterday, sends the following items of interest from his section:

There were 75,000 pounds of tobacco sold here during the week ending today (Saturday) at the warehouse of Wilkerson, Meadows & Co. Prices ranging $20, $43, $65 and $100 per hundred.

Our energetic townsman, D. J. Cooper, has just completed his spacious warehouse 110x40 feet, and will, we learn, open on Monday, the 26th inst. Another mammoth warehouse 120x40 feet is being pushed forward to completion rapidly, and will be opened early in February. This is being built by a joint stock company and, we learn, that Wilkerson, Meadows & Co., will take charge of it. We believe that not long hence Henderson will be one of the best tobacco markets in the State owing to eligibility of location and high prices given.

We believe "Gilliam" county overshadows all other general topics. The opposition having been disbanded by the agreement of the citizens to erect the public buildings without taxation, after first submitting to the qualified voters whether they desire a county or not.

BILL TO AMEND THE CHARTER OF THE CITY.

For the information of the citizens, we publish in full the bill, introduced in the House of Representatives a few days ago by Mr. Gorman, amending the charter of the city:

Section 1st. The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact, That if any owner or lessee of land in the city of Raleigh, on being notified to repair his side-walks according to law, shall allow his intention not to repair as ordered, the Commissioners may have such repairs made immediately at the expense of the said owner or lessee; a notice of ten days, by any officer of the city, verbally or in writing, shall be sufficient in any event.

Section 2d. When there is no side walk and no sidewalk has been in existence in convenient walking order along any lot in said city, the owner shall be required to pay such portions of the expense of making a sidewalk along said lot as any three assessors, unconnected with the owner, and disinterested, to be appointed by the Commissioners, may intimate that said property is benefited by the improvement, such expense to be a lien on the property, enforceable as liens for repairing side walks under the existing laws; provided, there shall be right of appeal by either party to the Superior Court, which shall be opened under the Charter of the city of Raleigh, and amendments thereto, the Commissioners shall by at least a two-thirds vote, appoint three assessors instead of five, as heretofore, who shall, besides estimating damages to those whose lands shall be taken, as now provided, apportion half the expense of opening and grading said streets among those whose lands lie along the same, or near thereto, according to the benefit derived to said lands; the other half to be paid by the city out of its Treasury. The amount so apportioned shall be a lien on the property so benefitted, enforceable in like manner as liens for repairs of side-walks, provided, that no person shall be deprived of his benefit of homestead under the Constitution by anything in this act contained, and said lien may be avoided by having such homestead laid off according to law.

Section 3d. Before making such apportionment the Assessors shall appoint a day when they shall all hear parties interested in the subject, giving at least three days' notice of the time and place of their sitting. From their decision the city or the lot owners may appeal to the Superior Court of Wake, but the Commissioners may, notwithstanding any appeal under this or any other act, proceed with the work of opening and grading the new street.

Section 5. This act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

NOTICE.—Messrs. Wm. D. Powers & Co., General Agents of the Weed Sewing Machine, invites the attention of the members of the Legislature and others to their stock of machines. See notice elsewhere.

LEGISLATIVE.—The Senate yesterday was occupied almost exclusively in the consideration of the special orders appointed for the day, viz: The Midland North Carolina Railroad bill and the Amnesty and Pardon bill.

The sixth section of the Railroad bill was considered, and pending the discussion of the proposed amendments, the bill was ordered to be recommitted to the Committee. When the bill is finally disposed of, we will give the substance of the alterations asked for the bill as it passes, if it does pass.

The Amnesty and Pardon bill is violently opposed by the Republicans, who without seems anxious to make it a party measure. Several able speeches were made in advocacy of the bill by Messrs. Allen, Flemming, Merrimon and Murphy, also by Messrs. Respass and Harris, in opposition. The further consideration of the bill was postponed until 12 o'clock Monday, when it will undoubtedly pass and become a law.

In the House yesterday the discussion of the bill to amend the school law of last year was resumed, and consumed the day. Our report of the proceedings is meagre, from the fact that space could not be devoted to it, as it would require the publication of the old law to make a report of the debates and the almost numberless amendments intelligible. At the close of the session, a rather amusing incident occurred. Some moved that "Prof. N. Mitchell, col., of Alabama, (the man who made a Republican stump speech while opening the House with prayer a day or two since,) be allowed the use of the hall, after the adjournment of the House, in order to address somebody on something." Dudley, col., indignantly objected. Some member wanted to know who "Prof. Mitchell" was, when that sable individual, who was standing at the time, attempted, with stentorian lungs, to give the member in search of knowledge the desired information. Mr. Badger, who was in the chair at the time, ordered the "Professor" to be ejected by the Doorkeeper, which order was executed instantly.

The last thing heard of this learned and dusky Alabamian, was some muttered words about the "inalienable rights of man," as he was hustled from the door.

OXFORD ITEMS.—Our Oxford correspondent under date of yesterday says:

Rev. T. H. Pritchard, D. D., has been on a visit to our town for several days. He is looking well and is as genial as ever. J. A. Mills, Esq., Superintendent of the Orange Asylum, and Hon. J. J. Hickman, the distinguished temperance lecturer, arrived here on Wednesday, the 22nd inst.

On Tuesday evening, pursuant to appointment, notwithstanding the unpropitious character of the weather, Dr. Pritchard delivered his lecture on the "Characteristics of Infidelity." We believe he terms his celebrated discourse a "sermon popularized." It elicited the highest eulogium from a select audience that had the good fortune to hear him. Dr. Pritchard is quite a favorite with our people irrespective of denominational predilections.

On Wednesday the Baptist Church was filled to repletion with an intelligent concourse of citizens of both sexes to hear temperance addresses by Dr. Pritchard and Hon. J. J. Hickman, the distinguished temperance lecturer from Kentucky. Dr. P. preceded the distinguished lecturer in an able and felicitous address, and Mr. H. sustained the high reputation, as a popular orator which has been awarded him in other portions of our country where it has been his privilege to speak in behalf of the cause which he has espoused with such earnestness and devotion. At the conclusion of his speech many of the staunchest citizens enrolled their names as members of the Good Templars. A number of ladies also joined the order.

He will speak again on the same subject on Friday evening, when it is thought additional accessions will be made to the Society.

At an informal Railroad meeting, held on Thursday, a sufficiency of funds were subscribed to have the route surveyed from Oxford to Marrow's Chapel or some contiguous point on the Roanoke Valley Railroad. A committee was appointed to secure the services of a suitable engineer. John Blackburn, Esq., presided over the meeting.

OUR CHURCHES TO-DAY.—Divine services will be held at the following Churches to-day, (Sunday) Strangers and others in the city are earnestly and cordially invited to attend. Gentlemen ushers will be present to conduct visitors to pews which are always free.

Edenton Street Methodist Church, Edenton Street, Rev. A. W. Mangum, officiating. Services at 11 o'clock A. M. and 7 o'clock P. M.

Baptist Church, corner Salisbury and Edenton streets, Rev. T. H. Pritchard, D. D., officiating. Services at 11 o'clock A. M. and 8 o'clock P. M.

Presbyterian Church, corner Salisbury and Morgan streets, Rev. J. M. Atkinson, D. D., officiating. Services at 11 o'clock A. M. and 7 o'clock P. M.

Christ's (Episcopal) Church, Wilmington street, Rev. R. S. Mason, D. D., officiating. Services at 11 o'clock A. M. and 7 o'clock P. M.

St. John's (Catholic) Church, corner Morgan & Wilmington streets. Rev. J. V. McNamara, priest, officiating. High mass at 11 o'clock. Vespers at 3 o'clock P. M.

Person Street Methodist Church, Rev. Mr. Hendren, officiating. Services at 11 o'clock A. M. and 7 1/2 A. M.

POISONING CASE NEAR FREMONT, WAYNE COUNTY.—We learn from a gentleman that arrived in the city yesterday evening from the vicinity, that the village of Fremont, on the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad is having a first class excitement over an alleged poisoning case. The facts as stated to us are as follows:

Mrs. Clara Edmondson, an aged and highly esteemed citizen, living near the village was prevailed upon by her son-in-law, one Patrick Caley, to take a glass of toddy which he kindly volunteered to prepare for her. Soon after taking the toddy she complained of a dizziness in her head. In a few moments afterwards she was seized with convulsions and expired immediately, just ten minutes after swallowing the fatal draught. In her death, agonies she returned to consciousness and stated that she had been poisoned.

Coroner Williams was notified of the circumstances of her death and a jury at once summoned, who are now holding an inquest upon the body. The stomach of the deceased was brought to Goldsboro Friday night, and examined by the medical men of that place yesterday. Upon their decision hangs the chances for the safety of the young man Caley, as we learn, because it can be shown why the death of the old lady would inure to his pecuniary benefit.

Hon. J. J. Hickman, of Kentucky, will deliver a Temperance Lecture at Metropolitan Hall, on Monday evening the 27th inst., at 7 1/2 o'clock.

LEGISLATURE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

SENATE.

JANUARY 25, 1873.

Senate called to order at 11 o'clock, Lieutenant Governor Brogden in the chair.

Journal of yesterday read and approved.

Petitions and Memorials.

By Mr. McCauley a petition of the citizens of Monroe, Union county, asking for the extension of the limits of said town and for other relief.

Reports of Standing Committees.

Mr. Love, from Propositions and Grievances, Messrs. Price, Avera, Welch and Gudgeon, from Corporations, Mr. Allen from the Judiciary, Mr. Ellis, of Catawba, from the Finance, and Mr. Murray from Engrossed Bills, and Mr. Todd, from Enrolled Bills, submitted reports.

Introduction of Bills.

By Mr. Avera, a bill for the better protection of the poor. Referred to Committee on Propositions and Grievances.

By Mr. Terry, a bill to aid planters, farmers, miners, manufacturers and others in the respective avocations. Referred to their Committee on Agriculture, Mining, &c.

Rules Suspended.

On motion of Mr. Ellis, of Catawba, the rules were suspended and the House bill, in favor of the Commissioners of Madison county, providing for the payment by the State Treasurer of $150 for the support of John Sawyer, a lunatic, who was taken from the asylum, and sent back to his county, was taken up on its second reading.

Mr. Love moved to strike out the preamble. Lost.

The bill passed its final reading by 38 yeas to 6 nays.

House resolution asking our Senators and Representatives in Congress to use their influence to prevent the repeal of the bankrupt law of the United States taken up.

The motion of Mr. Avera to lay on the table was lost.

On motion of Mr. Norwood, the vote to table was reconsidered, and his motion to table was also lost.

On the passage of the resolution Mr. Ellis, of Catawba, called the yeas and nays.

On a motion to lay on the table, and pending the discussion on the same, Mr. Love called the previous question.

Mr. Humphrey stated that the hour of the special order had arrived, and insisted on its being taken up.

Here a considerable discussion ensued on parliamentary law, as to which took precedence, the vote on the previous question or the resolution now pending or the consideration of the special order.

The President decided that the special order took precedence, when Mr. Love appealed from the ruling of the chair.

The Senate sustained the chair by 38 yeas to 8 nays.

After the special order was disposed of, the vote was taken on the resolution. Adopted by 28 yeas to 8 nays.

Special Order.

The consideration of the Midland North Carolina Railway Company was resumed.

The sixth section of the bill was then taken up. Several amendments offered. Pending the discussion on the amendments, on motion of Mr. Humphrey, the bill was recommitted to the Committee.

The "Amnesty and Pardon bill," taken up at 12 o'clock. The following amendment to the bill were offered by the Committee, to strike out, "or violation of the laws of the State of North Carolina."

Hyman, colored, offered an amendment to strike out first day of September, A. D., 1871, and insert in lieu thereof 29th day of January, A. D., 1870, which was intended to leave out the date of the so called Shotwell raid or disturbance. Lost.

Mr. Seymour offered an amendment excluding from the provisions those who had committed murder, arson and burglary.

Mr. Allen hoped the amendment would not prevail, and replied to the statement made by Mr. Seymour yesterday that only those mentioned in the latter part of the names of organizations mentioned were guilty and intimating that all of the Democratic party belonged to either one or the other of the organizations. He said admitting this proposition to be true, then all the Republican party must have belonged to the Leagues, and asked who it was that murdered Hunicutt, and the Foster family?—negroes who belonged to the Leagues. It was useless for Republican members to attempt to show that no crime had been committed by the Leaguers, or whatever they may be termed, when history speaks for itself.

Mr. Flemming did not expect to say anything on this bill when it was brought up, but wished to express his gratification that the amendment had been opposed by the Senator from Craven, as it gave him a better opportunity to reply to the opposition to the bill. Mr. Flemming continued at some length in which he reviewed the history of the organization named in the bill, the natural causes that led to this organizations and deprecating both the causes that occasioned and the existence of the organizations, he thought for the preservation of peace and harmony, general amnesty should be granted.

Mr. Moorehead, of Guilford, thought that if an amnesty was passed it should be complete, and therefore could not support Mr. Seymour's amendment.

Mr. Respass took the floor in opposition to the bill. He referred to the enormous crimes committed by the Ku Klux Klan, which was purely a political organization. He dwelt particularly upon the one result of their power, which was to change the General Assembly of 1871 to nearly two-thirds Democratic, when in 1869 it was two-thirds Republicans. For this and many other reasons he was opposed to the bill.

Mr. Merrimon followed Mr. Respass for the bill. He stated that he was never in any way connected with any secret political organization, and did not know that there were such organizations before the Holden trial.

But he knew there were such organizations and had committed crime. If general rumor, newspaper reports and jury trials were to be believed the Union League had also committed crimes. They were all known to be political organizations and as these crimes were necessary for political offences, why this solid opposition to the bill by the Republicans when they had proclaimed here on this floor so often for amnesty and pardon. Mr. Merrimon, continued at some length in favor of
